

While I major in Pure Mathematics, I also hold a Minor Honor Certificate in Applied Mathematics and Statistics, which especially helps to improve my ability in algorithms design and programming design ability, which is also needed in some areas like combinatorics, computation algebraic geometry and computation number theory.

